

B1

Free Intermediate Graded Readers

CEFR B1 · Threshold · approx. IELTS 4–5

A B1 graded reader is a book pitched at intermediate English — the threshold of independent reading. At B1 you follow the main points of clear, everyday material, which makes it a great level for your first full classic. On The Reading Corner, reading at B1 means the real book with only genuinely less-common words highlighted and explained, so you are supported without being slowed down.

Who this level is for

- You can follow the main points of clear, everyday material.
- You're ready for your first full-length classic.
- You want help only with the words that are genuinely new to you.

Start with these classics at B1
