

Treasure Island

by Robert Louis Stevenson · Best for A2–B1 (Elementary–Intermediate)

Read-along audiobook · A2–B1

Young Jim Hawkins stumbles upon a treasure map and finds himself at sea with a crew he cannot fully trust, including the cunning Long John Silver. Stevenson narrates in the first person, so you follow events through Jim's eyes and thoughts, which keeps the language close and personal. The sea adventure vocabulary is vivid and specific, but the story never loses its forward momentum.

What you'll practise

- First-person past narration — 'I saw', 'I thought', 'I had never felt'
- Seafaring and sailing vocabulary — 'schooner', 'rigging', 'starboard'
- Reported speech and indirect thought showing what characters believe
- Tap any nautical or old-fashioned word to see its meaning as the audio plays

How to read it — free

Listen to the full narration while you read along — every word above your level is highlighted in time with the voice and explained on tap. No signup, nothing to install.

Read it free

<https://readingcorner.uk/books/treasure-island>